

AMERICA WINNER OF BALLOON RACE

Lands International Event for James Gordon Bennett Cup at Zurich

Distance Over 700 Miles and
With Steady Rain Flight Is Regarded Remarkable

(Special from United Press.)
Zurich, Oct. 6.—The America II, piloted by Edgar W. Mox, is the winner of this year's international balloon race for the James Gordon Bennett Cup.

A dispatch was received from Mox last afternoon stating that he landed Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock in the forest of Gutowa, near Miava, in Russian Poland, north of Warsaw and near the German frontier.

The distance is over 700 miles.
Earlier dispatches had erroneously reported the America II as landing at Hidin, in northern Bohemia, a distance of only 600 kilometers from Zurich, which would have made the balloon 14th among the 17 starters. Mox's dispatch says:

"The America II came down in a pine tree in the forest of Gutowa, north of Warsaw, at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. I had little chance of being exhausted all of my balloon. The police seized me but I showed them the passport and everything was arranged satisfactorily.

"Considering the weather the America's flight was remarkable. It began raining Sunday night and rained most of the time. I had to make observations owing to the heavy weather, my last determined position being south of Prague."

Second place in the race goes to the De France, piloted by Alfred Le-Blanc which landed at Kubin, in Hungary, 800 kilometers distant.

The America II was the only American entrant in the race and messages of congratulation are already pouring in from Zurich for Mox. The balloon was built in Paris last year for J. C. Mc-Coy and was used by McCoy in the Berlin race. It had a capacity of 10,000 cubic feet and was of the largest size in the race. Mox was confident of winning the race and remarked to his friends as he entered the balloon basket Sunday that the America II would win if no accident befell it. In his message Mox says he landed in a pine tree but it is assumed that his balloon was not injured, else he would have mentioned the fact.

Le Blanc, the pilot of the balloon finishing second, was Mox's companion in the St. Louis balloon race in 1908.

MISS KEARNS WEDS
RICHARD V. BAGGS
Cousin of Groom Officials as Altar Boy While Nuptial Mass Is Said.

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at St. Augustine's church at 9:30 o'clock by the Rev. J. J. Flynn, Catholic priest, when Richard V. Baggs, son of Mrs. Catherine Baggs of Arch street, and daughter of Peter H. and Melissa Kearns of 15 George street, became the bride and groom. The bride, who is a cousin of the groom, was accompanied by her father, John Kearns, a cousin of the groom, and her brother, Charles Kearns, a brother of the groom, who acted as best man.
The bride wore a white messaline, a black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom wore a blue messaline, a black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of roses. The wedding was held at the home of the bride, 15 George street, where the groom and his friends were received.
The bride and groom will reside at 136 Catherine street where the groom has fitted up a home.

NURSED MAN BACK TO HEALTH NOW SHE'S HIS BRIDE

Pretty Romance Culminated Today in Wedding of Mark Twain's Daughter.

(Special from United Press.) Redding, Oct. 6.—Beneath a bower of seasonable flowers, Miss Clara Clemens, daughter of Mark Twain, was married to Ossip Gabrilovitch, the famous Russian pianist, at noon today, at Stormfield, the country home of the humorist. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph H.
Twichell of Hartford, a life-long friend of the family who married Miss Clemens' parents, 29 years ago. The couple were unattended and the bride was given away by her father.

The guests numbering about 40, were all New Yorkers and close friends of Mr. Clemens. Mr. Albert Biglow Payne, the author, and neighbor of Mark Twain, and his wife were the only local residents present at the ceremony. A dinner was served after the wedding, after which the young couple left for New York and on October 12th they will sail for Germany where they will make their home. It is the intention, however, to spend the summer of each year in America.

Miss Clemens is 28 years of age and a beautiful brunette and her husband is 31. Their marriage marks the culmination of a pretty romance which began last June when, following an operation for a mastoid tumor in a New York hospital, Mr. Gabrilovitch came to Stormfield as a guest of Mr.
Clemens. He suffered a relapse, and languished between life and death for several weeks during which time Miss Clemens was his constant attendant.
The engagement which followed, was made public yesterday. The couple met 11 years ago in Germany where they were studying music and last year Mr. Gabrilovitch won a member of Miss Clemens' company which toured the country giving musicals.

Stamford, Oct. 6.—It was 4 A. M. before the main line tracks of the railroad were cleared of obstructions due to the siding of a work train locomotive by that of the Boston Express, running light, last night, on a crossover. Both engines were damaged and for half an hour all the six tracks were obstructed. One after another was cleared by men working all night. The interlocking apparaplicating the situation.

WALL STREET TO-DAY.
New York, Oct. 6.—(Opening.)— Stocks were steady after the opening declines. United States Steel Common was the most prominent feature, selling at 88 1/2 to 89 against 90 1/2 at yesterday's close. The other stocks were generally confined to small fluctuations. New York Central and Erie held firm, slightly above yesterday's close. After the first few minutes a firm tone developed. Steel common nearly all its losses. At the end of the 15 minutes many stocks showed ample gains.

U. S. A.—A firmer tone developed after the first 15 minutes and although gains were limited to fractions there was general confidence to sell and a more confident tone prevailed.
Steel common was better supported.
New York Central advanced nearly a point and Erie advanced a fraction.
Government bonds unchanged; other bonds steady.

Deaths and Funerals.
Sarah E. Marsh, aged 64 years, was found dead in her bed yesterday morning, at the home of G. W. Wakeman, Fairfield, in whose family she had resided for many years. She had been suffering from the effects of a heart attack about 6 o'clock. An hour later she was found dead of heart disease. She had resided with the Wakeman family for the past five years.

The remains of Jane Bisket, who died at the home of her nurse, Miss Winifred E. Beers, 330 State street, yesterday afternoon, were taken on the 2:29 train this afternoon to Norwich, where the funeral services will be held and the interment will take place. She was the mother of the late George H.
Coulter, of 61 Hough avenue, this city.

Wakeman, perhaps the oldest resident of Southport, died yesterday at his town at the age of 92 years.
The deceased was well known throughout Fairfield county as an extensive farmer. He was born in Weston, the son of Samuel Wakeman of Fairfield and Drusilla Nichols of Weston.

PRESIDENT TAFT AND SCENES IN LOS ANGELES, WHERE GREAT WELCOME AWAITS HIM

PREMONT HOME

MONUMENT TO THE
CALIFORNIA VOLUNTEERS,

All the California cities that President Taft has not yet visited on his present journey are vying with one another in preparing for his coming.
Los Angeles intends to spread itself as it has not done since it received Admiral Evans and his fleet. The officers and men of the fleet have never ceased talking of the splendid reception they received in Los Angeles, and far and wide southern California is famed for such hospitality as the old south knew in its palmy days. The president has a large circle of personal friends in Los Angeles. Many persons live there who knew him and were closely associated with him when he was in the Philippines, and, as the city is made up of a population drawn from every quarter of the globe, the chief executive is looking forward to his visit there Oct. 11 and 12 with keen relish.
Of course there will be the usual banquet, parade and public receptions, and the president will view a parade of school children second only to that a locket which she prized highly because of its associations Mrs. Louis of Detective Hackett. The locket was found on the neck of a girl in the employ of the Howland Dry Goods Co., Monday and told Mrs. Quint about the discovery.

Scott heard the civil action brought by John Meyers of Easton against his neighbor, Peter O'Donnell, for $1,000 which grew out of a row the two had over the boundary line between their lands of the two. It was on April 7 that the two had it out. The plaintiff alleged that O'Donnell brutally assaulted him, and that his wife helped the court reserved its decision.

Many Seriously, As Result of Head-on Collision.

(Special from United Press.) Clinton, Ill., Oct. 6.—One woman is son, 36, of Farmer City, Ills. Two of

YOUTHFUL COUPLE DISTRESSED OVER FAMILY JARS

Bit of Wholesome Advice Given to the Sherwoods by Judge Foster

Advises Hubby to Provide a Home for Himself and Wife Other Than With His Parents

"Get away from the home of your parents and get a home of your own and you and your wife will be able to get along better," said Judge Carl Foster in the city court this morning to Irving B. Sherwood, aged 17, painter in the employ of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. Co., who was charged by his wife Clara, three years his senior, with non-support. This is the second time within a year that Sherwood has been arrested on the same charge. His case was continued for one month.

If Sherwood does the right thing by his wife he need not appear in the court again, but if he does not he will be brought before the court. Since the court told the young couple that neither had anything on the other and that they acted like two children. He told them they should be ashamed of themselves to be in the city court.

The couple were married in May, 1908. They lived with the parents of Sherwood at Central avenue. Since that time the married life of the girl, according to her testimony, has been very disagreeable. She was obliged to work for her board and keep for her husband's parents because her husband gave her very little money.
There was mutual distrust on the part of each of the young people.

She accused him of going to places at night which he refused to tell her about, and he charged her with conduct which he did not like. After his first arrest several months ago they got along very well for a few weeks.
He paid her money every week. Then he stopped giving her money, saying he had no work, and they returned to the home of his parents. They had been living in Broad street. Since she service department of the southwest, time she alleges that she had been abused by her husband and that he refused to give her any money.

Another gave her a dollar a week once in a while and she was enabled to save this for clothes.
Mrs. Sherwood said that owing to her condition she had been unable to do heavy work about the house and Sherwood's mother intimated that some one else would have to be found to do the housework. She took the hint and about two weeks ago went to a cousin of her husband's. Three days ago she left the home of the cousin for that of an aunt, where she now lives.

Sherwood admitted that he had not given his wife as much money as he should, but he said she left his parents' home of her own accord and that she had always been well treated there. He said his wife has a very strong temper. He receives $25 per day at the present time and has $8 saved. He thought he, and his wife could get along by themselves and agreed to treat her right in the future.

Thirty-fourth Annual Meeting Opens in Willimantic Today

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST
(Special from United Press.) Willimantic, Oct. 6.—The 34th annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union opened this afternoon at the convention of the Baptist Church here this afternoon with about 200 delegates in attendance. There will be two sessions today, three to-morrow and the convention will adjourn Friday noon. All the meetings will be open to the public.

The interior of the church was beautifully decorated and every seat was occupied when Mrs. C. B. Bush of East Hampton, state president of the organization, called the convention to order at 1:30. Following the adoption of resolutions, a memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Cornelius Forbes of Peiham, N. Y., former state president of the organization. An address entitled, "Our State Paper," was then delivered by Mrs. Lisa K. Fuller of Scotland, which was followed by the reports of the work accomplished in the various departments of the organization.

The afternoon session came to a close with a report on the Local Temperance Legion work by Mrs. Grace C.
Platt which was followed by a discussion.
This evening's session will begin at 7:45 and following a short devotional service, there will be a gold medal contest in charge of Miss Nellie A.
Gager of this city, in which several young men and young women will

SECOND CHAPTER
OF DR. COOK'S
OWN STORY
The second installment of Dr.
Cook's own story of his discovery of the North Pole will be printed in the Farmer tomorrow. The Farmer has the exclusive right for this vicinity to print Dr. Cook's narrative. The public interest in Cook's exploit is very great. This was shown when the editor of the Farmer, in which the first installment of the story was printed, was entirely exhausted and the demand for copies became greater than the supply. It will be advisable for those who are not regular subscribers for the Farmer, but who wish to read Dr. Cook's statement by himself of his journey to the farthest north to leave an order with the nearest newsdealer early tomorrow.
